Everything changed two months ago and nothing is the same now. Maybe, it's good to tell you what happened two months ago. I don't want to keep secrets because I hate secrets. That event was mysterious. We were buddies! We were best friends for years. We supported each other. We shared our secrets because we counted on our friendship. We backed each other up everywhere. That evening, everything became just a dream. Guess what happened!

LAKE'S

That evening, Natalie, Nick and I went for a walk near the lake. Later, we sat under a tree and had a chat.

"How about going to the cinema tomorrow?" asked Natalie.

"That sounds great, but I can't go out early. I have a project. I'm busy in the morning."

"OK, Eylül, we can go out in the afternoon. I'm hungry now. Let's eat something. Would you like to eat cookies at Lake's?" said Nick.

We were all hungry and we went to Lake's. Lake's was a good café near the lake. We ate our cookies and we saw a strange thing on the lake. It looked like a fish, but it wasn't as big as a fish. We looked closer. It was like a small person walking on the lake. To be honest, Nick and Natalie weren't curious about the strange thing. I was curious!
